

A detailed map of Europe and its surrounding regions, including the Mediterranean Sea, Black Sea, and parts of North Africa and Asia. The map is rendered in a light, faded style.

8TH ANNUAL SOUTH EAST EUROPEAN FILM FESTIVAL

A map of Europe with a solid red overlay. The map shows major geographical features and country borders.

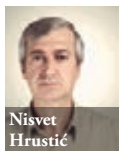

LOS ANGELES MAY 2 - 6, 2013

The logo for SEE FEST, featuring a stylized 'S' icon composed of three vertical bars of varying heights, followed by the word 'SEE' in red and 'FEST' in white on a red background.

SEE FEST

SOUTH EAST EUROPEAN FILM FESTIVAL | a lot to SEE.

KIOSK PROGRAM AND FESTIVAL ONLINE (CONT.)

THE WEST IN THE EAST (Zapad na istoku)

Bosnia and Herzegovina, 2010, 23 minutes

Director/Producer: Nisvet Hrustić

Nisvet
Hrustić

In his quest to build a weekend home in the most environmentally friendly way possible, Dzermal Hrustić embraces eastern ideals decrying wastefulness. The process involves transporting fresh spring water to his house from three-quarters of a mile away without resorting to bottles or tampering with the surrounding land, a task he undergoes while facing skepticism from his community and pondering man's relationship with nature.

STATUS: IN TROUBLE

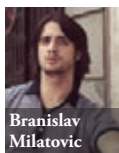

Macedonia, 2012, short, 15 minutes

West Coast Premiere

Director: Eleonora Veninova

Driven by Facebook posts and rumors, a group of high-school students take action to "help" a friend, not realizing how misplaced their intervention is.

ALL OF THAT (Sve to)

Montenegro, 2012, short, 27 minutes

North American Premiere

Director: Branislav Milatovic

Producer: Ivan Đurović

Branislav
Milatovic

A father takes his young son on a fishing trip to draw the boy's attention away from the funeral of a classmate. His plan turns out more difficult than expected, and his son shows maturity beyond his age. Starring Slavko Štimac as the father.